Nov. 30.

Dear Burleigh,

Senator Henry Wilson, learning from Mr. Garrison that you were writing an Report, desires to present you a copy of his book on the antes'l: history of the present & last Congress, — & has left said book with me, for you. He thot. (he said) it might help you, & we believe it cannot fail to save you a good deal of hunting over newspapers, &c. &c.

With your Service Some

Florence friend to call
here & get it for you?

In too much haste
to add now and then word. Yrs. truly

Do tell us where
the Report is now? i.e.
at what stage.
